Why Should I Join MFHS ?

Mandurah Family History Society is a group of amateur enthusiasts whose aim is to help members get the most out of their family history. Whilst you do not need to belong to an association to research your family history, membership provides access to extensive resources.

Is Family History For Me ?

Most people join because they have a curiosity about their family, a need to prove their ancestral roots.

If you have ever had a twinge of curiosity, why not dip your toes in the water now.

- It can deepen a connection to a family's past, present and future.
- It develops a better understanding of how your family's role in society has evolved.
- It develops skills in reasoning and creativity. Learn to be a detective!

To discover a little more about your family's history join the friendly and supportive group at Mandurah Family History Society.
